Editorial Issue (1)

We are pleased to present to you issue 1 of the academic Journals of Medical and Pharmaceutical Sciences for the year 2021. We thank you very much for the great efforts made by Prof. Dr. Ziad M. Abood, showing the current issue of the magazine. We also extend our thanks to the editor-in-chief, Prof. Dr. Taghreed Khudhur Mohammed in the follow-up of prestigious research and printing, issue 0. The current issue of the journal included a number of research and scientific articles related to: the effect of pomegranate peel extracts against bacteria, the COVID-19 epidemic, the prevalence and risk factors of obesity in children, the effect of the ACE2 RS2106809 and RS2074192 genotype on the tolerance of both sexes to infection and recovery from Covid disease-19, Anti-Zinc Oxide Nanoparticles and Antioxidants, Food and Nutrition Safety during the COVID-19 Pandemic Period, Pharmaceutical Monitoring, and Sense of Smell and Taste in People with COVID-19 Infection. We hope that the Academy for Medical and Pharmaceutical Sciences will achieve, through this edition, the aspirations of researchers and those interested, and that we seek, with the help of God Almighty, to develop the scientific journal for the better, and to have a distinguished scientific presence regionally and globally, and we look forward to elevating the journal to the international scientific classifications accredited internationally and for the purposes of scientific promotion.

With sincere appreciation

Prof. Dr. Taghreed Kh. Mohammed
Editor-in-Chief, May - 2021

About Iraqi Academics Association

The Iraqi Academics Association was established pursuant to Law No. 61 of (2017), with the aim of caring for the teaching and academic staff and upgrading the level of workers in this vital sector and preparing plans and policies that improve the teaching process and for the establishment of councils and unions concerned with the affairs of academics and their defense and preservation of their dignity and academic freedoms. And in order to raise the reputation of Iraqi universities and institutes and equalize them with their counterparts in civilized countries. According to clause -3 of the second clause of its law, it:

First: The Iraqi Academics Association has the moral personality and financial and administrative independence represented by (the Iraqi Academics Association) or whoever is authorized by it.

Second: The union's center shall be in Baghdad, and it may open branches in the governorates and wherever the union's interest requires finding representation for it.

Third: Members of the College in Iraqi universities and institutes recognized by the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research may belong to the Association.

According to Article -3-, the objectives of establishing the union are:

First: Upgrading the profession of higher education and scientific research to achieve its mission of serving the nation and the nation's generations.

Second: Coordination and cooperation with the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research and the relevant authorities in order to achieve the union's tasks.

Third: Promoting the ethics of the higher education profession and preserving the ethics, traditions and honor of the profession.

Fourth: Encouraging studies, research, educational activities and conferences, and holding courses and seminars to raise the scientific and professional level of teachers in Iraqi universities and institutes.

Fifth: Strengthening the position of academics in society and defending their rights, interests and dignity.

Sixth: The advancement and advancement of members professionally, economically, culturally and socially.

Seventh: Establishing a Social Solidarity Fund to help union members, ensuring them and their families a decent life in cases of complete disability or death, and providing health care for members and their families.

Eighth: Cooperation and strengthening of relations with similar Arab and international federations.
